

Memories not by but of.

“Over the years Bob moved from teaching accounting and law at the University of Texas and then SMU in Dallas, to the City of Austin's fraud department, and lastly to what he's doing now, teaching at a local historically Black college where he has single handedly created the school's accounting department and staffed it.”

Mike Gross 2003-11

"saw Bob Kellogg recently in Austin and “had two exquisite gourmet meals with them at Katz's Deli.” 2008-03
