On September 21, 2020, Marrero ordered USPS to treat all election mail as "first-class mail" or "priority mail express," and also required them to "pre-approve" all overtime requests for the 2 weeks surrounding Election Day to ensure that absentee ballots are processed properly.

On August 20, 2020, he dismissed another attempt by President Trump to allow his accountants to disregard the New York prosecutor's subpoena for eight years of the president's tax returns. In the ruling, he held that the prosecutor's grand jury subpoena was valid and the Presidents attempts to challenge it were dilatory and without merit. He concluded: "Justice requires an end to this controversy "

On October 7, 2019, he dismissed an attempt by President Donald Trump to prevent his accountants from complying with a New York prosecutor's subpoena for eight years of President Donald Trump's tax returns.

Marrero is well known for twice striking down elements of the USA PATRIOT Act, including in September 2007, stating that the provision in question "offends the fundamental constitutional principles of checks and balances and separation of powers."
