

Holding close

Concentrated on the representation of closely-held business organizations including family owned businesses and professional practices. Also work with trade associations, charities, foundations, and other nonprofits.

Organization, operation, and dissolution or sale of a variety of privately held entities. Development and implementation of succession plans and the resolution of conflicts between owners or stakeholders.

Troutman website