

Litigation and representation.

Litigation: on behalf of corporations including Sony (e.g., in the Betamax case), Bausch & Lomb (soft contact lenses), ABB (misappropriation of trade secrets and cruise ship propulsion systems), ABKCO Records (matters involving the Rolling Stones), Dana Corp. (in class and derivative actions and a related SEC investigation), and Phillips-Van Heusen, Brooks Brothers and Donna Karan. State and federal courts, including US Supreme Court. In more than 30 states and many foreign countries.

Representation: an inmate who challenged prison regulations requiring he trim his beard, another who sought damages following an assault by correction officers; and a hospital worker denied social security disability benefits following her termination for missing work on account of epilepsy.